

For Cell Groups at FUMC Bentonville

I understand and give my permission that my student(s) cell group will meet in the designated home of an approved youth member or leader. Under state law of having a valid drivers license I give my student permission to drive themselves and siblings only to and from youth meeting.

I understand that my students cell group may choose to go to dinner and transportation will be provided either by my students (for themselves) or the cell group leader.

YOUth Code of Conduct:

As a representative of Christ and Bentonville First United Methodist Church, I take seriously my responsibility to care for one another.

This code represents affirmation of my concern for the well being of the total community. I covenant with the others to insure the safety of all, to make our time together most meaningful, and to care for the facility which we share.

1) Anything considered illegal under civil and criminal law in Arkansas is illegal for participants of any FUMC YOUth event. This includes drug possession and use, alcohol consumption and possession by a minor and alcohol consumption on state property, possession of firearms, weapons or fireworks, etc. Tobacco use is disallowed as well.

2) Dress should be appropriate for a co-ed Christian environment.

3) All participants are expected to participate in the event in full and be at designated places at all times.

4) Visitation between males and females will be in designated areas ONLY.

5) I will respect the person, equipment and property of others as well as the public and private properties (living areas, meeting rooms, etc) in use during the event.

6) Any accidental damage to the property will be billed to the persons who caused the damage. Intentional damage is subject to additional penalties.

7) Cell phones, music players, etc. may be used during free time at levels that do not disturb others and cannot be heard outside the room in which it is being played.

8) I understand that I must obey the adults, respecting them, and everyone else during all programs, events, and trips.

I understand that violations of this covenant and/or other inappropriate behavior could require disciplinary action for youth and adults. Decisions about appropriate disciplinary action will be made by Brandon, adult group leaders, and possibly youth leaders. The right is reserved to call parents or to dismiss any person who breaks this code of conduct and immediately send them home at their own expense.
